

What are some possible outdoor program activities that might focus on some of these outcomes?

	AGE 6	AGE 7	AGE 8	AGE 9-10-11	AGE 12-13	AGE 14-17
General	Practice Leave No Trace Skills	Know how to roll a sleeping bag. Know what to take on a hike.	Know what to take on an overnight trip and go on an overnight.	Practice overall camp craft on an overnight.	Be able to improvise and use equipment. Help pack food and equipment efficiently. Learn primitive camping skills.	Take charge of a cookout. Go on an extended camping trip. Learn survival skills. Try canoe camping or backpacking.
Orienteering	Know what to do if you are lost.	Sketch a map of playground and orient it to the surroundings.	Find North on a compass. Know good hiking practices and use them.	Know how to read and use a road map and a topographic map. Know how to tell directions with a compass.	Find directions using a map and compass adjusting for declination. Follow a bearing.	Participate in an orienteering club meet or set up your own course.
Knots		Learn the square knot, how and when it is used.	Learn the clove hitch and its uses.	Become proficient with the previously learned knots. Learn the bowline.	Learn the half hitch and taut line.	Learn how to whip and coil a rope. Learn about the various kinds of rope and how to care for it. Try splicing.

	AGE 6	AGE 7	AGE 8	AGE 9-10-11	AGE 12-13	AGE 14-17
Tools		Learn knife safety and how to use and care for a knife.	Learn how to sharpen a knife.	Learn the parts of a tent; pitch and strike one. Make a fuzz stick. Learn to use a bow saw.	Learn how to use a hatchet and ax.	Learn how to sharpen a hatchet and ax
Health & Safety	Help clean up after a cookout. Know safe wading practices.	Know how and where to dispose of garbage, paper, and liquids. Know what to do for a burn or cut. Be able to identify poison oak.	Organize a dishwashing setup and properly dispose of gray water.	Know how to care for fainting, sprains and simple accidents. Take charge of cleanup after a cookout. Know how to dig a cat hole.	Practice basic first aid procedures. Know how to purify water.	Take a Red Cross Standard First Aid course (which includes adult CPR). Learn how to deal with emergencies in the backcountry.
Cooking	Practice using kitchen utensils, e.g. peelers, can openers, graters. Prepare some "no cook" snacks.	Prepare a one-pot meal. With supervision use a box oven and try foil cookery.	Try sticking cookery. Cook a one-pot meal on your own.	Be proficient at many methods of cooking. Make a box oven. Try Dutch oven cooking.	Bake on coals; use a reflector oven and a buddy burner.	Be proficient in all types of cooking.

	Age 6	Age 7	Age 8	Age 9-10-11	Age 12-13	Age 14 -15	Age 16-17
Fires and Stoves	Learn stove and fire safety. Know how to choose a safe place to set up a stove or build a fire. Know how to put out a fire safely.	Light a fire and stove with supervision. Help build and maintain a fire.	Set up a stove with supervision. Build, light, and tend a fire alone. Know which fires are best for different kinds of cooking, e.g. one pot, foil, stick.	Learn to build a fire with very wet wood. Build one and keep it going.	Learn how to use a backpacking stove and lantern safely. Know how to build a trench, log cabin, and teepee fire and when to use each. Build a fire on a rainy day.	Be able to light, control, and maintain stoves and lanterns safely. Be proficient at previously learned fires including rainy day ones.	Be able to teach stove a fire safety.
Wood	Collect wood and sort into tinder, kindling and fuel.		Be able to sort into dry, green and rotten wood.	Be able to identify and know hard and soft woods and the uses for each.
Trips/ Camping	Day trips and day camping.	1 night overnight in an indoor setting and day camp.	2 nights overnight in an indoor setting, 1 night in an outdoor setting.	2 nights in an outdoor cabin progressing to tents and non-council sites.	2-3 nights camping, non-encampment camping, travel camping.	Travel to other states.	Travel internationally to WAGGGS Centers, etc.